

STREETLY LAWN TENNIS CLUB

Privacy Policy for Members

For the purposes of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and UK data protection laws, the controller is STREETLY LAWN TENNIS CLUB (“the Club”) of Park View Road, Sutton Coldfield B74 4PT.

About this document

This privacy policy sets out the way we process your personal data and ensures you are aware of how we use our data as a member of our tennis club.

How we collect your information

We may collect your personal data in a few limited ways, namely:

- Directly from you, when you fill in an application for membership, when you make enquiries on our website, when you provide information via the Club’s management software or court booking system, or when you interact with us during your time as a member in various other ways (for example, where you enter a competition, renew your membership, sign up for a course or lessons)
- From someone else who has applied for membership on your behalf (for example, a family member or your tennis coach who has provided us with your contact details for that purpose)
- From the LTA (for example where the LTA passes on your details to us in connection with a complaint or query you have raised about our Club)

The types of information we collect

We may collect the following types of personal data about you:

- Contact and communications information, including your contact details – email address(es), telephone numbers and postal address(es) and records of communications and interactions we have had with you
- Financial information including Direct Debit details
- Certain other information which you volunteer when making use of your membership benefits (for example when making court bookings or making use of other Club facilities)

We may also collect data about your health or medical conditions, where you have volunteered this, for example so that we can cater for you when you attend a Club social event or course/camp.

How we use personal data

Personal data provided to us will be used for the purposes set out at the time of collection and, where relevant, in accordance with any preferences you express.

More generally, we will use your personal data for the following purposes:

- Administration of your Club membership including:
 - Informing your about court usage/facilities opening hours
 - Taking payment of membership fees
- Fulfilment of orders for goods and services
- Administration of the Wimbledon ballot
- Research and statistical analysis about who is playing tennis in our Club
- Communication about our Club activities that we think may be of interest to you
- Storing your details on the software platform we use for our online Club member management database /court booking system. Please note that your own use of the software or system is subject to the Terms and Conditions and Privacy Policy published on that site; where this is necessary for our legitimate interests (for example in increasing use of our Club's facilities and participation in the game generally)
- Promoting our Club and promoting goods and services of third parties (for example equipment suppliers, operators of coaching courses, and organisers of tennis events) where we think this will be of interest to you: where this is necessary for our legitimate interests (or the legitimate interests of a third party), and/or where we have your consent, as applicable

Your marketing preferences

We will always respect your wishes in respect of what type of communications you want to receive from us and how you want to receive them. There are some communications, however, that we need to send you regardless of your marketing preferences in order for us to fulfil our contractual obligations to you as a member of our Club. Example of these essential service communications are:

- Records of transactions, such as payment receipts or Direct Debit confirmation (as applicable)
- Membership related mailings such as your membership renewal reminder, notices of formal meetings and information about venue closures and holiday opening hours

Where you have given us your consent to use your personal information in a particular manner you have the right to withdraw this consent at any time. You can update your choices and/or your contact details by contacting us at:

Telephone number: Bob Whitaker, Membership Secretary

Email: stcmembership@yahoo.co.uk

Post: Park View Road, Sutton Coldfield, B74 4PT

Please note however that withdrawal of your consent will not affect any use of the data made before you withdrew your consent and we may still be entitled to hold and process the relevant personal information to the extent that we are able to do so on a basis other than your consent. Withdrawing consent may also have the same effect as not providing information in the first place, for example we may no longer be able to provide certain member benefits to you.

Sharing your information with others

We do not sell or share your personal data for other organisations to use other than as set out below:

Personal data collected and processed by us may be shared with, but not limited to, the following third parties where necessary:

- Our employees and volunteers for the purpose of administering your membership and giving you access to the membership benefits to which you are entitled
- Our contractors, suppliers and coaching staff

How long your information is kept

We keep your personal data only for as long as necessary for each purpose we use it. For most membership data, this means we retain it for so long as you have a valid Club membership with an additional 6 months in case of late renewal of membership and for a period of six years after your last interaction with us (for accounting, tax reporting and record-keeping purposes)

Your rights

Under certain circumstances, by law you have the right to:

- Request access to your personal data (commonly known as a 'data subject access request'). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it
- Request correction of the personal data that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate information we hold about you corrected
- Request erasure of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it.

You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data where you have exercised your right to object to processing (see below)

- Object to processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes.
- Request the restriction of processing of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of personal data about you, for example if you want us to establish its accuracy or the reason for processing it. You can also withdraw your consent, where this is the basis for our processing your data (without affecting the lawfulness of our previous processing based on consent)
- Request the transfer of your personal data to another party

Please note that the above rights are not absolute, and we may be entitled to refuse requests where exceptions apply.

Contact and complaints

If you have any queries about this privacy policy or how we process your personal data, or if you wish to exercise any of your legal rights, you may contact Suzanne Ursell, Data Manager
